50th IEEE/IFIP Int. Conference on Dependable Systems and Networks

Valencia, Spain

June 29 - July 2, 2020

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, it is our pleasure to invite you to the 50th edition of the Annual IEEE/IFIP International Conference on Dependable Systems and Networks (DSN 2020), to be held in Valencia, a city located in the middle of the Spanish eastern coast. Along with an amazing touristic, cultural and gastronomic offering, Valencia offers kilometres of blue flag beaches and endless options to enjoy, alone or in family, an average of 300 days of sun per year. DSN 2020 will be hosted by the Universitat Politecnica de Valencia, one of the most important Technical Universities in Spain.

Over the years, DSN has pioneered the fusion between dependability and security research, understanding the need to simultaneously fight against accidental faults, intentional cyber-attacks, design errors, and unexpected operating conditions. These concerns can no longer be tackled in isolation, neither in general IT nor in internet-of-things, cyber-physical systems, autonomous transportation, robotics and application areas.

DSN 2020 will offer to attendees, not only an unbeatable scenario for being aware of the last advances on dependable and secure computing, systems and networks, but also an interesting ground for academia and industry interaction. The conference program will include plenary talks, regular papers, experience reports, an industrial track, a student forum, a fast abstract track, together with state-of-the-art workshops. In addition, the conference will celebrate this year its 50th anniversary. In the preceding 49 years over 2000 papers were presented and over 12,000 colleagues took part in our annual conference.

We need your contribution and participation to make this 50th edition of DSN a succesful and once-in-a-life scientific and social event.

We are looking forward to seeing you to Valencia in June 2020!
