

NSA SoS Researcher Wins Award

Submitted by AdamT on Fri, 02/21/2020 - 1:41pm

NSA Researcher, a familiar face at SoS meeting, Dr. Ahmad Ridley was presented with the 2020 Black Engineer of the Year Science Spectrum Trailblazer Award.

"Hopefully, I, as an African American male in STEM, can inspire students who do not often see themselves represented in STEM to be resilient in achieving their goals," said Dr. Ridley.
